PALM SUNDAY (B) 24 MARCH 2024

FIRST READING

Isaiah 50:4-7

I did not cover my face against insult and I know I will not be ashamed.

The Lord has given me a disciple's tongue.

So that I may know how to reply to the wearied he provides me with speech.

Each morning he wakes me to hear, to listen like a disciple.

The Lord has opened my ear.

For my part, I made no resistance, neither did I turn away.

I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard;

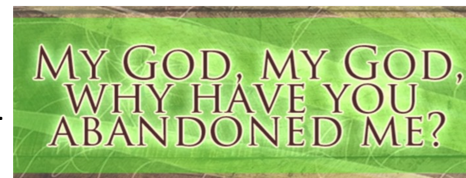

I did not cover my face against insult and spittle.

The Lord comes to my help, so that I am untouched by the insults.

So, too, I set my face like flint; I know I shall not be shamed

PSALM RESPONSE:

My God, my God, why have you abandoned me.

SECOND READING

Phil 2:6-11

He humbled himself to become like us and God raised him on high.

His state was divine, yet Christ Jesus did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave and became as people; and being as all people are, he was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross.

But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Christ became obedient for us even to death, dying on the cross.

Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory.

GOSPEL

The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark 14:1-15:47

REFLECTION...

Today’s description of Palm Sunday in Mark (11:1-10) marks the triumphant entry into Jerusalem of Jesus, together with his disciples. Jesus rides on a donkey borrowed for the occasion to fulfil an existing prophecy. “Shout for joy...Jerusalem...see your king shall come to you...a just saviour...riding on a colt” (Zechariah 9:9). Some of those watching spread their cloaks and place branches from the fields on the road calling out ‘hosannas’ in loud voices by way of greeting. Mark’s version is mostly descriptive of a joyous occasion, but in John (12:12-16) more attention is paid to those who witness the event. They include the chief priests who are dismayed by the fervour with which Jesus is followed. The story of the raising of Lazarus preceded the entry into Jerusalem and the authorities were growing increasingly concerned as to the disruptive effect Jesus was having on the populace. They were soon to act. For Jesus, however, this marked the beginning of his journey to the cross. As the Easter journey unfolds in coming days, it is interesting to reflect on the state of mind of Jesus at this stage-was he full of uncertain apprehension or filled with dread about the inevitability of what was to follow?

As Project Compassion 2024 comes to an end, we want to thank you for your incredibly generous support throughout Lent. This year, we shared with you the story of three inspiring women from across the globe, who overcame challenges to complete their education, access water and find secure employment. With the support of compassionate people like you, they are now forging a path to a better future for their families and their communities. There is still time to donate! Together, we can help vulnerable communities face their challenges today and build a better tomorrow, for all future generations. You can donate through Project Compassion donation boxes and envelopes available from your parish, by visiting caritas.org.au/project-compassion or by calling 1800 024 413.

Please return project compassion boxes and envelopes at the Easter masses.

RCIC. In Emmaus as well as progressing the Sacraments for those children who are already baptized, we have another program for children (over 7 years) who are yet to be baptised. This program includes baptism, confirmation and first communion all celebrated on the one occasion after a period of study over 8 weeks-usually one hour per week. We negotiate the dates and timing with those involved. For more information ask the REC or APRIM at your school or contact Emmaus on sacraments@eparish.org.au .

FAREWELL !!

THIS SUNDAY 24TH MARCH after the 9am mass in Kingswood, we will be holding discussions on the document which is a synthesis of the proceedings which took place at the WORLD SYNOD held last October in Rome. This is our opportunity to provide a response to this paper in preparation for the second Synod to be held later this year. We will commence in the Mary MacKillop Room at the back of the parish hall at Kingswood and expect to engage for about an hour. So come to Kingswood to mass this weekend, or just come along to the discussions at 10am. To access the document or summaries of it, google World Synod of Bishops 2023 and you will get many references to follow up. Everyone welcome.

COME JOURNEY WITH US. Guided reflections on the Journey of Jesus to Calvary and silent prayer for Peace in the Ukraine and Middle East. This is the last Tuesday at 6.30pm, St Therese Church.

The group would report to the PPC and be responsible for developing and implementing an action plan for the Emmaus Parish. If anyone is interested in being a part of the group, please email Stephen Shinnick at: emmausppc@eparish.org.au
